5.1.2 The maximum Sum Insured payable for Children aged between 6 and 13 years is limited to R50 000 as per legislation.

7.2 No Benefit will be paid if the cause of death of any Insured listed in the Policy Schedule is because of natural causes within 6 (six) months from the Commencement Date of this Policy, unless proof of prior cover on an alternate policy with another insurer is provided and such alternate policy was replaced with this Policy, provided that the waiting period for natural death under that prior policy has expired, alternatively. If only a portion of that waiting period has expired, only the unexpired portion of the waiting period will apply. The premium is due in advance, if it is not received by the Insurer by the due date, a period of 90 (ninety) consecutive Days (the Grace Period) will apply in which the Policyholder can pay in the arrears, failing which the Policy will cease and all Benefits will be cancelled If there is/are an outstanding premium(s) at the

8.1 The Insurer will not change or Vary the premium rate during the first 12 (twelve) months after the Commencement Date of the Policy unless there are reasonable actuarial grounds to change or Vary the premium rate or when the Variation will be to the benefit of the Policyholder. After the first 12 (twelve) months, the Insurer reserves the right to review and change the premium and cover annually. Any changes to the premium rate will be notified to the Policyholder 31 (thirty-one) Days prior to the change taking effect. Such notification will provide appropriate details of the reasons for the change to the premium rate and will afford the Policyholder with reasonable steps, such as an option to terminate the policy, to mitigate the impact of the increase on the Policyholder. The premium rates may be amended or changed, based on the following factors: past and future expected economic factors (for example, but not limited to, interest rates, tax and inflation), past and future claims experience, past and future expected lapse experience, past and future expected mortality experience, expected future reinsurance, any regulatory and legislative changes impacting this Policy or any other factor impacting the premium

8.3 The Administrator uses the Debicheck debit order system and may track your bank account to determine whether sufficient funds are available. 8.4 You must notify us immediately if your bank account details or your pay date changes, and we will be entitled to change your debit order details to collect in terms of this Policy agreement. 8.5 If premiums, in whole or in part, are in arrears, and a Claim Event occurs, the Benefit amount will be reduced by the arrear amount, provided the Policy has not yet lapsed. 8.6 Premium payments do not accrue a value and each paid premium is used to cover the risk for the month in which it is paid.

Where no Claim has been instituted in terms of this Policy or where no right has accrued to institute a Claim, you may, within 31 (thirty-one) Days of receipt of this document, cancel your Policy by contacting the Administrator (as appointed by the Insurer) and inform them of the cancellation in writing. All premiums

This Policy will be cancelled with immediate effect if any Claim is fraudulent in any way or if any connivance is used by an Insured or Claimant or by any person acting on behalf of an Insured or Claimant, at any time, or where fraudulent means is used to obtain a Benefit.
